Patels of villages will be held responsible for checking licenses and comparing the produce covered by them when such produce is removed into their villages and for the punctual transmission of recovered licenses to the Range officer.

18. Conditions under which the license is granted.—The following conditions will be printed on the back of the original license for the guidance of the licensee :—

- (a) The license is not transferable and must be shown on demand to any Forest officer, any Revenue officer or to any Police officer.
- (b) The licensee shall produce this for check with the produce before the Forest officer from whose jurisdiction the produce has been removed, or to any recovering officer specially appointed for the purpose, or to the Patel of the village into which the produce is removed.
- (c) The licensee shall observe all the conditions stated in this license as to quantity and kind of produce and as to the locality where it should be collected and the road by which it should be removed.
- (d) Any breach of the above conditions will render the holder liable to immediate cancelment of this license and to the punishment provided by law.

19. General.—If, before the expiry of the period mentioned in the license, the produce has not been cut, collected or removed in pursuance of the license, the license shall be deemed to be cancelled, but the licensee shall be entitled to an extension of the period upon his proving to the satisfaction of the Range officer that the non-removal was owing to unavoidable causes, such as heavy rains, floods or any accident while in transit, on his paying a renewal fee equivalent to one-fourth of the fee already paid. Such extension of period should be immediately intimated to the license-issuing officer for note in the original license.

Patels of villages will be held responsible for checking licenses and comparing the produce covered by them when such produce is removed into their villages and for the punctual transmission of recovered licenses to the Range officer.
